Notes for teachers

Help the children to read the passage, ensuring that they understand that it is the script for a short play. If possible, the children could act out the play, taking turns to be Character A or Character B. Discuss the questions with them and encourage them to work out their answers orally before putting anything down on paper. Do they remember to write in complete sentences, using appropriate punctuation? Encourage them to write more than one word in reply to question 5 – this is an important skill.
