

Name: _____ Date: _____

1 Why is Character A pleased that it's snowing?

---

---

2 Give two of the reasons Character B is not pleased about the snow.

---

---

---

3 What does Character A suggest as a solution to the problem of snow going down Character B's neck?

---

---

4 What big problem does Character A think of?

---

---

5 How does Character B respond to that problem?

---

---

6 What do you think is good about snowy weather and what do you think is bad about snowy weather?

---

---

---

---

---

Notes for teachers

Ensure that the children understand that this passage is the script for a short play. If possible, the children could act out the play, taking turns to be Character A or Character B. Do they remember to write in complete sentences, using appropriate punctuation?