Name: _____ Date: _____

Read about the house for sale and re-read the estate agents' details about a flat for sale. Make comparisons between the two sets of details. Are there any similarities? What are the differences?

Notes for teachers

Ask the children to read the passage slowly carefully, ensuring that they understand that it consists of estate agents' details about a large house that is for sale. Provide them with the estate agents' details on the flat featured in the previous exercise.