

Snowmen

A sketch for three characters.

Two snowmen are talking to each other.

A Hello.

B Hello.

A You're new round here, aren't you?

B We all are!

A I suppose that's true. Snow only came yesterday morning so I was born yesterday afternoon.

B So was I! That means we've got the same birthday!

A Yes, I saw you being made.

B So you're a bit older than me.

A That's right. Lovely weather we're having!

B Yes, I love it! Really cold but a bit of sunshine just to brighten up the day.

A I've heard it's going to snow again later.

B Really? That's great news!

A Yes, it certainly is because there'll probably be more of us after that.

B We'll be able to have a party.

A Hey, watch out! Someone's coming.

B Who is it?

A It's the girl who made you. Keep still and don't say a word!

B OK.

C Hello Snowman, you look wonderful!

B Thank you!

C AAH! She runs away.
